

CLASSIFIED BUSINESS/TECHNOLOGY EDUCATION TEACHER

School: Clarksville Middle School

Qualification: Preferably, the candidate will have:

1. some experience working with kids ages 10-14 years of age.
2. some post high school coursework, including but not limited to associate's degree or bachelor's degree.
3. some experience with Google and Microsoft digital applications.

Duties:

1. Teach technology-related special areas class.
2. Teach Google and Microsoft digital applications.
3. Teach an introduction to coding using a predesigned curriculum.
4. Receive training and teach a one semester course on an introduction to STEAM using a predesigned curriculum.
5. Assume the duties associated with instructional best practices (i.e. developing a curricular pacing guide, lesson planning, creating assessments, teach bell to bell, etc.)
6. Assume the duties associated with classroom management (i.e. develop and communicate high expectations for behavior of students, create a plan for behavior management plan, including consequences for misbehavior, develop seating charts, manage student behavior to ensure students are safe, etc.)
7. Attend all building level professional development, staff meetings, etc.
8. Work within the administrative framework as outlined by the principal and/or principal designee.

Salary: $24.50/hour, 40 hours per week, 184 days

Applicants for the position must submit a resume, references and a classified application to Clarksville Middle School Principal, Dr. Nikki Bullington at nbullington@clarksvilleschools.org

Date: May 10, 2024